CONTAINER DETENTION POLICY – PAPUA NEW GUINEA

Dear Client

We would like to advise you of a change to our Container Detention policy for Papua New Guinea. Effective 21st Nov 2011, our free time for import containers will reduce to 15 calendar days . All other charges remain unchanged. Please see a summary of our updated container detention policy:

Free Time * Import /Coastal 15 calendar days

Export 15 calendar days

*Free time commences:

Import/Coastal - The day after vessel departure from port

Export - 15 days prior to advertised vessel ETA

Thereafter

Container Size/Type	First 30 days	Thereafter
20' GP	Kina 20.00	Kina 40.00
40' GP or HC	Kina 40.00	Kina 80.00
20' RF	Kina 120.00	Kina 240.00
20' OT or FR	Kina 75.00	Kina 150.00
40' OT or FR	Kina 150.00	Kina 300.00

All charges will be invoiced to the named consignee on the bill of lading on a fortnightly billing cycle.

Any containers not returned within 120 days will be assumed to be lost, and the full cost of replacement of the container will be charged in addition to the container detention charges accumulated up to that time to the named consignee on the Bill of Lading.

We would appreciate your cooperation to return containers within the free time period.

Please do not hesitate to contact your local representative should you have any queries.

Yours faithfully,

Trade Management
